JUDGES 2015

Colin Langridge

PHD, Tasmanian School of Art, University of Tasmania Hobart
Masters of Fine Art, Tasmanian School of Art, University of Tasmania, Hobart
Honours in Sculpture BA Fine Art, Curtin University, Perth
Bachelor of Fine Art, Curtin University, Perth

Josie Hurst

Josie has a multimedia degree Bachelor of Fine Arts/Bachelor of Information Systems. As the Devonport Regional Gallery Exhibitions and Public Programs Officer, she developed and managed over 50 programs ranging from life drawing classes, contemporary jewellery workshops, graffiti workshops, puppetry, African music, dancing, talks and forums. In 2009 Josie commenced a Masters of Cultural Heritage. She runs education programs at Moonah Arts Centre and is co-curator of youth program Soft Centre, part of Glenorchy Council's Works Festival. She has key involvement and board membership of numerous significant arts organisations in Tasmania.

Sandra Cumming

Sandra has been a practising miniature artist for nearly a decade starting in 2006. She is a member of the Hilliard Society-England, the MASF-America and ASMA- Tas.& Victoria (Miniature Art Society's).

Mike Calder

Mike has been a proud Tasmanian for 26 years. For the first 20 years he was a teacher and keen amateur photographer. During those amateur years he improved from a rank beginner to win gold medals in four international exhibitions of photography and four national exhibitions of photography in Australia. He was awarded Fellow of the Tasmanian Photographic Federation (FTPF), Fellow of the Australian Photographic Society (FAPS) and Artiste de la Federation Internationale de l'Art Photographique (AFIAP).

In 2007 he turned his hobby into a business and hasn't stopped smiling since. He produces postcards, greeting cards, calendars, diaries and books featuring his beloved Tasmanian landscapes, animals and plants - at last count 8 books with one more on the drawing board. His "work" takes him to all corners of Tasmania, capturing images for his next products – and for his own satisfaction. And he loves it.
