Exhibitors without the appropriate passes will be charged general admission.

AMISH CHALLENGE

The Amish Challenge is a sweepstakes event held at selected shows throughout Australia. To be eligible to participate in the competition the dog must be owned and handled by its breeder.

Three cash prizes are offered by "Cordmaker" Puli:

The winner will receive a rosette with prize money of $1,000.00

First and Second "Award Merit" will receive a rosette with prize money of $500.00 each.

The Rules to enter this Competition are

1. The competing dog must be breeder/owner/handler
2. If the dog is co-owned it must be the breeder who handles the dog and such breeder must also be one of the registered owners.
3. The breeder is the person/s whose name is attached to the prefix at the time the litter was officially registered with the respective Canine Controlling Body. If the prefix is later transferred to other parties, it is the date of registration of the litter that determines the dog's eligibility for the competition. If the prefix is in co-ownership, multiple dogs belonging to that prefix maybe but, each must be owner/breeder/handler.
4. Any KENNEL PREFIX that has won this event, anywhere in Australia, is NOT permitted to enter the event again. Note:- it is the PREFIX that is excluded from further competition. A current list of past winners is available from Sue Huebner.
5. A standard entry form should be completed for this completion, including details of the Breeder/s, Owner/s and the handler of the dog.
6. In the catalogue the following be listed:
BREED
NAMES OF DOG/BITCH
BREEDER/S NAME
OWNER/S NAME
HANDLER'S NAME

We would like to thank Cordmaker Puli for sponsoring this event at the 2015 Royal Hobart Show.
